All advertising is subject to THE HOYA's Policies and Terms of Agreement and to all provisions and regulations set forth in this section. Insertion orders with pricing inconsistent with THE HOYA's rate card will be regarded as clerical errors and will be corrected to reflect THE HOYA's heretofore established policies, terms and provisions.

THE HOYA reserves the right to reject or cancel any advertisement or insert for any reason and to regulate the typographical tone, design and size of ads to comply with THE HOYA's format.

Under no condition will one-time exceptions to THE HOYA's policies, terms or regulations be binding on the newspaper in the future.

The advertiser or advertising agency assumes all responsibility and liability for the content of advertisements and inserts and for any claims, expense or loss resulting from the publication or non-publication of such items in THE HOYA. Submission of copies and/or photos for inclusion in an advertisement shall constitute certification by the advertiser that any necessary releases and permissions to use such materials have been secured by the advertiser. With regard to the publication of an advertisement, the advertiser will accept full responsibility including, but not limited to, claims of libel, infringement of rights of privacy, plagiarism or copyright violations.

THE HOYA assumes no financial responsibility for errors in, or omissions from, advertisements. If errors in advertisements are the fault of THE HOYA, make-good space will be offered for only the portion of the advertisement containing the error provided proper notification of such error is made by the advertiser within 14 days of the date of the first billing of the advertisement

THE HOYA reserves the right to include "Paid Advertisement" in any advertisement that in its judgment resembles editorial content.

Advertising agencies are ultimately held responsible for meeting payment and all other obligations and charges incurred through their representation of their clients. Multiple tear-sheets are offered for agencies and co-op purposes only.

All political advertising must be paid in advance of publication and must be labeled "Paid Political Advertisement." The sponsor must be clearly identified.

THE HOYA reserves the right to change any policies and advertising rates at any time with notification to affected advertisers prior to publication of future advertisements. In the event of rate changes, THE HOYA will notify affected contract advertisers who will have the right to be released from contract obligations without penalty as of the date the new rates become effective, or to continue at the new rate.
